

Wade D. Fulford Administrative Law Judge (ALJ)

ALJ Fulford graduated from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law- Indianapolis in 1996. He has over 18 years of legal experience as a licensed attorney in good standing with the Indiana Supreme Court. He currently is the deputy general counsel at the Indiana Department of Insurance (IDOI) and previously was senior litigation counsel. Prior to joining IDOI, he was a deputy attorney general with the Office of the Indiana Attorney General.

ALJ Fulford has served as an ALJ since 2011. Prior to becoming an ALJ, he litigated and advised clients in private practice on issues related to insurance defense, products liability, toxic tort defense, regulatory compliance, contracts, premises liability, probate, real estate, and the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) in state and federal courts throughout the country.

His community involvement includes serving on the board of the Really Outrageous Christian Kids Program; president of trustees at Zionsville United Methodist Church; and he is a member of the Zionsville Economic Development Commission.

The ALJ is a full-time state employee with standard medical, insurance, leave and any other state benefits. See the State Personnel Department's \(SPD\) homepage for more information. Salary and other public information for state ALJs and other employees can be found at the Indiana Transparency Portal at <http://www.in.gov/itp/2406.htm>.